Welcome at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

We want to get you started successfully at our University!

Dear Researcher,

finding your feet in a new country and becoming part of a new (scientific) culture can be difficult.

To help you overcome the new challenges of your everyday life and get a good start at our University, the Heine Research Academies would like to assist you during your first weeks in Germany. Please contact us in good time before your arrival, and we will support you with the best possible service.

To provide you with all the tips and tricks and help you get connected with other researchers, the Heine Research Academies also offer a comprehensive information and networking platform for doctoral and postdoctoral researchers, junior research group leaders and their hosts at Heinrich Heine University.

With all these services and a complementary programme including workshops on transferable skills as well as interdisciplinary and subject-specific topics, we would like to facilitate your arrival in the German (scientific) community and promote your individual scientific career.

Get in contact with us and we will do our utmost to help make your research stay at Heinrich Heine University a success.
